JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: time served

It is the judgment of the court that defendant, Elizabeth Torres, is hereby committed on Counts Two and Three of the indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of time served.

Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three (3) years on each of Counts Two and Three of the indictment, to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
5. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

USA vs. ELIZABETH TORRESDocket No.: CR 18-00740-FMO

6. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.
7. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
8. Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment if she desires it and/or if the Probation Officer determines that such treatment is necessary.
9. Defendant shall submit defendant's person and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement or probation officer, with or without a warrant, and with or without cause; and if stopped or questioned by a law enforcement officer for any reason, defendant shall notify that officer that defendant is on federal supervised release and subject to search.
10. Defendant shall participate for a period of twelve (12) months in a home detention program and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. During this period of home detention, defendant shall be restricted to her residence at all times except for: employment; education; religious services or gatherings; medical appointments and procedures; attorney visits; court-ordered obligations; activities related to the care of her children, grandchildren, and mother; and all other activities approved by Probation. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer may place defendant on electronic monitoring, GPS, alcohol monitoring unit or automated identification system if the Probation Officer determines such monitoring is necessary. The costs of location monitoring are waived for defendant.

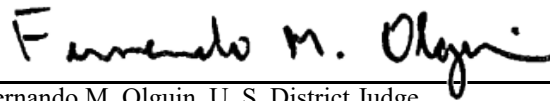

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of supervised release, at the rate of not less than $25 per month. All fines are waived as the court finds that defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon motion by the government, all remaining counts as to this defendant are hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
